

Join us for what will surely be a memorable Seventeth Anniversary Season.

While the orchestra you see on stage will look much the same, there will be a couple of major changes in the future. Executive Director Ann Huntoon will be retiring in June of 2018. She has worked tirelessly and effectively to grow the orchestra's structural foundation. And, the 2018-19 season will be Maestro Patrick Miles' 17th and concluding year on the podium for CWSO. When asked about his retirement, he answered, "I won my first professional orchestra audition as a junior in high school in 1974 when I won a horn position with the Flagstaff Symphony Orchestra. After forty-five years with various orchestras around the country and world, I feel it's time to hang up my baton. It has been such a pleasure and honor to work with the many fabulous musicians of CWSO over the years and I truly appreciate the support that the community has shown me during that time. Thank you to all."
